

BC Care Aide &
Community Health
Worker Registry

The BC Care Aide & Community Health Worker Registry's mandate is to serve and protect vulnerable patients, clients and residents and to improve standards of care.

To work for a BC health care employer receiving public funds, all care aides and community health workers (also known as health care assistants or HCAs) are required to register. Registered HCAs need to verify / update their accounts annually to maintain active status.

REGISTRY
WEBSITE

HEALTH CARE ASSISTANT PROGRAM PROVINCIAL CURRICULUM 2023

BC HCA CORE COMPETENCY PROFILE

WEBSITE:
www.cachwr.bc.ca

CONTACT US:
register@cachwr.bc.ca

Professional Development for HCAs

BC Care Aide &
Community Health
Worker Registry

Visit the Registry website for more information on continuing education, including Indigenous Cultural Safety and Humility courses for HCAs!

Also, be sure to check out new resources available for HCAs, including the HCA Care Activities Chart and the HCA Decision Making Tool!

CONTINUING EDUCATION

HCA DECISION MAKING TOOL

HCA CARE ACTIVITIES CHART

WEBSITE:
www.cachwr.bc.ca

CONTACT US:
register@cachwr.bc.ca